

Itsy Bitsy Spider

The itsy-bitsy spider crawled up the waterspout.

(wiggle fingers on both hands and stretch arms up over head)

Down came the rain and washed the spider out.

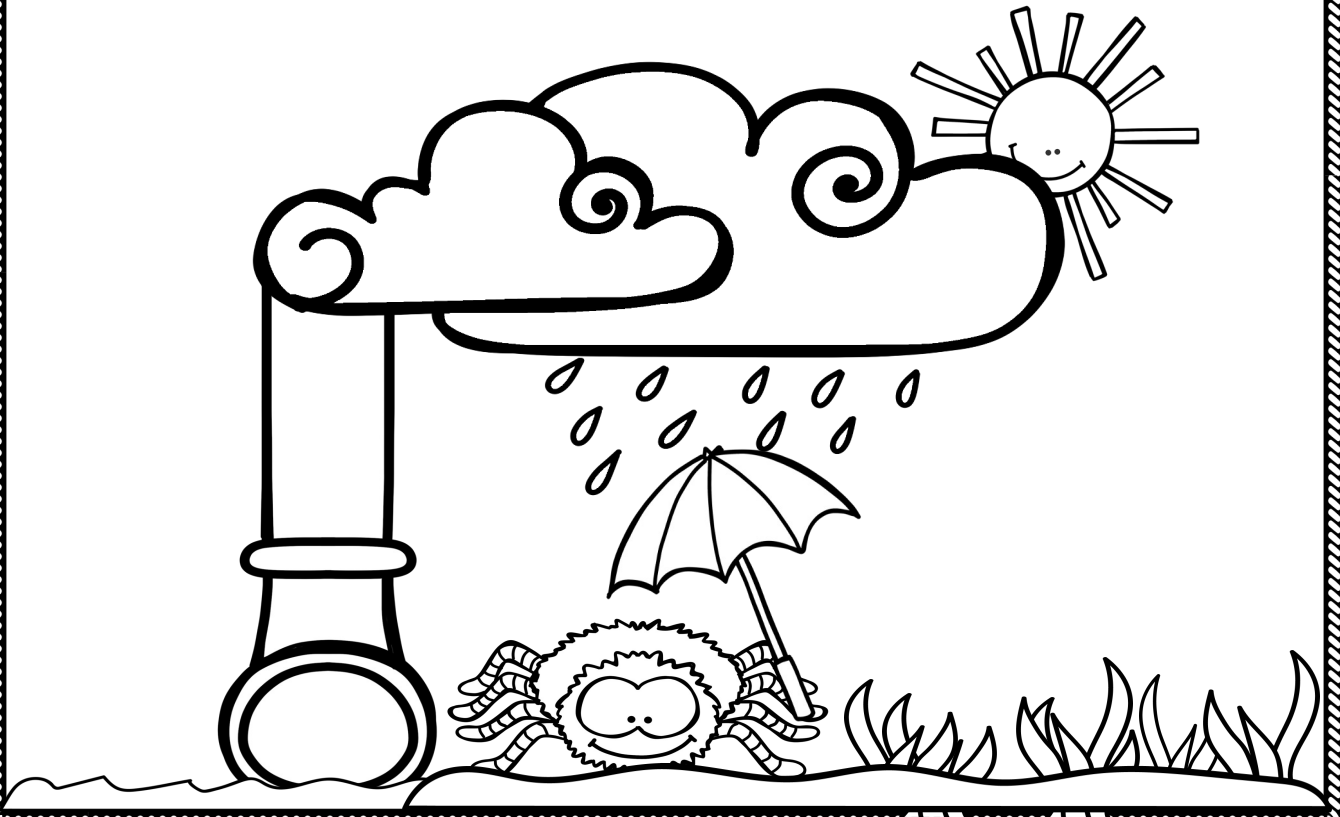

(now bring both arms down and out to the side to wash out)

Out came the sun, and dried up all the rain,

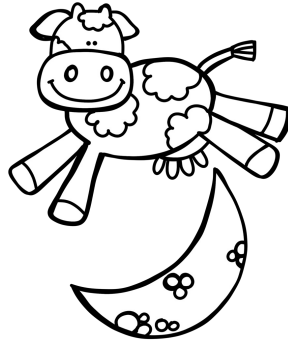

(arms overhead in a circle for the sun)

And the itsy-bitsy spider went up the spout again.

(wiggle fingers on both hands and stretch arms up over head)

Hey Diddle Diddle

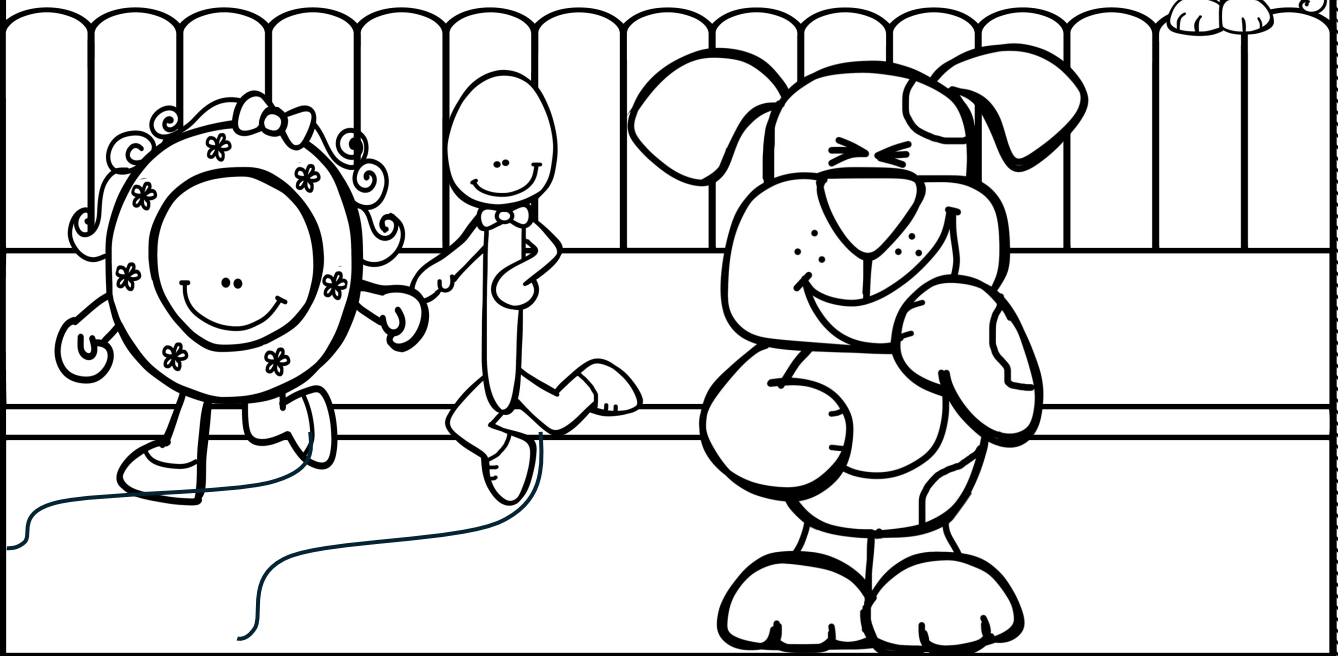

Hey diddle diddle, the cat and the fiddle,

The cow jumped over the moon.

The little dog laughed to see such fun

And the dish ran away with the spoon!

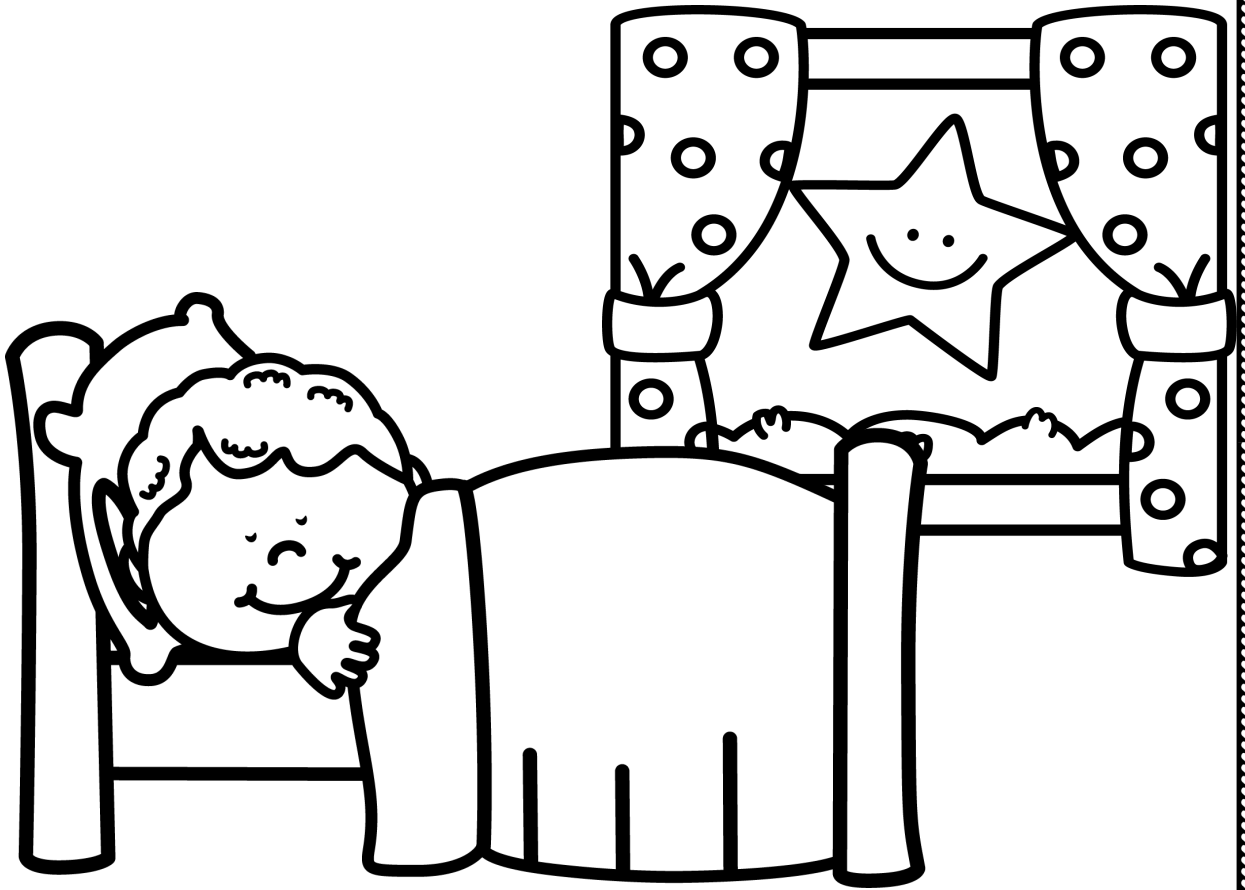

Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are,

Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky,

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are.

(This is a classic nursery rhyme and song and is an excellent one for babies and toddlers because of its simplicity and repetitiveness. Use your hands and fingers and open and close them for the "twinkle" part, shrug your shoulders for the "how I wonder" part, and put your arms and hands together up in the air for "above the world so high.")

I'm a Little Teapot

I'm a little teapot, short and stout
Here is my handle

(Place your hand on hip.)

Here is my spout

(Stick your other arm straight out.)

When I get all steamed up, hear me shout
Just tip me over and pour me out.

(Lean over with your spout arm.)
